The Bidder shall provide information specified in Section 2: Bidder Information Sheet (items 1-5).
4. Fraud and Corruption:

ADB requires borrowers (including beneficiaries of ADB financed activity) and their personnel, as well as firms and individuals participating in an ADB- financed activity, including but not limited to bidders, suppliers, and contractors, agents, subcontractors, subconsultants, service providers, sub-suppliers, manufacturers (including their respective officers, directors, employees and personnel) under ADB-financed contracts, to observe the highest standard of ethics during the procurement and execution of such contracts in accordance with ADB's Anticorruption Policy (1998, as amended from time to time). In pursuance of this policy, ADB

- (a) defines, for the purposes of this provision, the terms set forth below as follows:
 - (i) "corrupt practice" means the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting, directly or indirectly, anything of value to influence improperly the actions of another party;
 - (ii) "fraudulent practice" means any act or omission, including a misrepresentation, that knowingly or recklessly misleads, or attempts to mislead, a party to obtain a financial or other benefit or to avoid an obligation;
 - (iii) "coercive practice" means impairing or harming, or threatening to impair or harm, directly or indirectly, any party or the property of the party to influence improperly the actions of a party;
 - (iv) "collusive practice" means an arrangement between two or more parties designed to achieve an improper purpose, including influencing improperly the actions of another party;
 - (v) "abuse" means theft, waste, or improper use of assets related to ADB-related activity, either committed intentionally or through reckless disregard;
 - (vi) "conflict of interest" means any situation in which a party has interests that could improperly influence that party's performance of official duties or responsibilities, contractual obligations, or compliance with applicable laws and regulations;

- (vii) “integrity violation” means any act, as defined under ADB’s Integrity Principles and Guidelines (2015, as amended from time to time), which violates ADB’s Anticorruption Policy including (i) to (vi) above and the following: obstructive practice, violation of ADB sanctions, retaliation against whistleblowers or witness, and other violations of ADB’s Anticorruption Policy, including failure to adhere to the highest ethical standards.
- (b) will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the bidder recommended for award or any of its officers, directors, employees, personnel, subconsultants, subcontractors, service providers, suppliers or manufacturers has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive, or obstructive practices or other integrity violations in competing for the contract;
- (c) will cancel the portion of the financing allocated to a contract if it determines at any time that representatives of the Borrower or of a beneficiary of ADB-financing engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive or obstructive practices or other integrity violations during the procurement or the execution of that contract, without the Borrower having taken timely and appropriate action satisfactory to ADB to remedy the situation including by failing to inform ADB in a timely manner at the time they knew of the integrity violations;
- (d) will impose remedial actions on a firm or an individual, at any time, in accordance with ADB’s Anticorruption Policy and Integrity Principles and Guidelines(both as amended from time to time), including declaring ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stated period of time, to participate in ADB financed, administered or supported activities or to benefit from an ADB financed, administered or supported contract, financially or otherwise, if it at any time determines that the firm or individual has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive or obstructive practice or other integrity violations; and

- (e) will have the right to require that a provision be included in bidding documents and in contracts financed, administered or supported by ADB, requiring bidders, suppliers, contractors, consultants, manufacturers, service providers and other third parties engaged or involved in ADB-related activities, and their respective officers, directors, employees and personnel to permit ADB or its representative to inspect their site, assets, accounts and records and other documents relating to the bid submission and contract performance and to have them audited by auditors appointed by ADB.

All Bidders, Consultants, contractors, suppliers, manufacturers, service providers, and other third parties engaged or involved in ADB-related activities, and their respective officers, directors, employees and personnel, are obliged to cooperate fully in any investigation when requested by ADB to do so. As determined on a case by case basis by ADB, such cooperation includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- a. being available to be interviewed and replying fully and truthfully to all questions asked;
- b. providing ADB with any items requested that are within the party’s control including, but not limited to, documents and other physical objects;

- c. upon written request by ADB, authorizing other related entities to release directly to ADB such information that is specifically and materially related, directly or indirectly, to the said entities or issues which are the subject of the investigation;
- d. cooperating with all reasonable requests to search or physically inspect their person and/or work areas, including files, electronic databases, and personal property used on ADB activities, or that utilizes ADB's Information and Communications Technology (ICT) resources or systems (including mobile phones, personal electronic devices, and electronic storage devices such as external disk drives);
- e. cooperating in any testing requested by ADB , including but not limited to, fingerprint identification, handwriting analysis, and physical examination and analysis;
- f. preserving and protecting confidentiality of all information discussed with, and as required by, ADB.

All Bidders, consultants, contractors and suppliers shall require their officers, directors, employees, personnel, agents to ensure that, in its contract with its sub-consultants, Subcontractors, and other third parties engaged or involved in ADB-related activities, such sub-consultants, Subcontractors, and other third parties similarly are obliged to cooperate fully in any investigation when requested by ADB to do so.

The Employer hereby puts the Bidder on notice that the Bidder or any Joint Venture partner of the Bidder (if any) may not be able to receive any payments under the Contract if the Bidder or any of its Joint Venture partners, as appropriate, is, or is owned (in whole or in part) by a person or entity subject to applicable sanctions.
